

WILL SELECT NEW STUDENT COUNCIL MEMBERS MAY 17

Must File Petitions By Monday, Norquist
Announces

3 OFFICES OPEN

Three positions are open on the Student Council and an election will be held May 17 to fill them, President Don Norquist announced at a Council meeting in Room 16 Monday, May 1.

The terms of Bob Johnson, sophomore representative; Elizabeth Wendland, senior representative, and Dorothy Brown, freshmen representative, expire at the end of this semester, and their successors must be elected before the present academic year ends, Norquist said.

Petitions Due May 8

Petitions must be handed into the Student Council by May 8 and should be signed by at least fifteen students. Petitions may be secured from either Norquist or Bob Johnson, '35, secretary of the Student Council.

"The candidates must circulate the petitions themselves," Johnson told a Gateway reporter.

Neither the Greeks nor Barbs have announced their intentions to back any candidates in the election, but it is pretty well understood that the Barbs are desirous of gaining representatives in the Council and will back a ticket. If this is done the Greeks are expected to present an opposition slate.

Student Council Apologizes For Election Error

The Student Council at its Monday meeting voted to apologize to Miss Helen Harris, Barb candidate for junior attendant in the Gala Day election, whose name had been left off the ballot. Miss Harris secured 24 votes in the election, two less than the winner.

The Council will write Miss Harris a formal letter of apology and will also publish an open letter of apology in The Gateway. The letter appears in this issue.

Leon Fouts, '34, treasurer of the Barbs, attended the meeting of the Council and asked that the Council apologize to Miss Harris for leaving her name off the ballot.

"The Barb Council did not demand a new election. We only thought that the Council owed Miss Harris an apology," Fouts said later. "We are satisfied with the action taken and will let the matter drop."

Elect Officers, But Results Are Secret

Members of the W. A. A. voted for officers for the coming year at their meeting Wednesday evening, May 3. The ballots will be opened on May 24, but the result will not be announced until the night of the Women's Athletic Association banquet, May 26.

Dorothy Austin and Mary Brown, official delegates to the National Women's Athletic Association Convention in Austin, Texas, presented reports on the convention and plans for play day were also discussed at the meeting. Games were played before and after the meeting.

Attend Sports Day Program Given By Nebr. Uni. Co-Eds

EIGHT Municipal University women and Miss Ruth Diamond, gym instructor, attended the annual Nebraska University Sports Day held for Nebraska college women at Lincoln, Saturday, April 29.

Those making the trip were Ethel Jane Scanlon, Florence Schnackel, Marion Eppley, Pearl Dansky, Virginia Perkins, Minnette Myers, Virginia Boucher, and Hortense Geisler.

The women played paddle tennis, hit pin, baseball, deck tennis, and swam in the Nebraska University pool. Women from Chadron Normal, Nebraska Wesleyan University, Wayne Normal, Doane College, and Peru Normal also attended.

BUTLER IS HOME AFTER 10 WEEKS IN IMM. HOSPITAL

Permitted To Walk a Short Distance
Each Day

Duane Butler, '35, returned to his home, 2210 Manderson street, Wednesday afternoon after being confined to Immanuel Hospital for ten weeks. He is now permitted to walk a short distance each day.

Butler was accidentally wounded February 23 while target shooting near Nashville, Nebraska, with a group of friends. His recovery, however, was hindered by a relapse suffered last March.

News Editor

He is a member of Theta Phi Delta fraternity, and was news editor of The Gateway until his accident. Last year he was managing editor of the University paper.

While attending Technical High School he was chosen to represent that school in the Edison contest. He was elected president of his graduating class as well as president of the school's chemistry club.

State University To Accept Work From Omaha U.

Though Dr. E. B. Stouffer of Kansas University refused to recommend to the North-Central Association the accreditation of Municipal University he advised his own university to accept work done here, President W. E. Sealock told a Gateway reporter Thursday morning.

"Nebraska University has also decided to accept work done at Municipal University," the president said. "On the basis of Stouffer's report they will accredit us for a three-year period. This is as long as the North-Central Association will accredit a university."

Refuses To Accredite

Stouffer refused to recommend that the North-Central Association accredit Municipal University because of inadequate buildings.

"Municipal University students who are contemplating transferring to other institutions should have no fears of losing credits," the president said. "Practically all universities in the country will accept work done here and will give full credit."

DR. E. B. STOUTER'S REPORT USED TO DENY RECOGNITION

Hits At Inadequate Buildings Of The University

PRAISES FACULTY

In refusing the Municipal University accreditation the North Central Association based its action largely on the report on the institution made by Dean E. B. Stouffer of Kansas University, who was in Omaha, February 16.

Dean Stouffer would not recommend the accreditation of Municipal University because of an inadequate building and the lack of sufficient classes reserved for juniors and seniors.

Recognize Good Points

The report praised the faculty, administration, and the library and declared that "no harm would result if the Association would recognize the good points of the University as overbalancing the deficiencies in the plant."

The faculty was characterized as "not only well trained but they are alert and enthusiastic and apparently doing their work in a very satisfactory manner. Several well-trained members were added to the faculty the present year and funds are available to add more when necessary."

SCHOLARSHIP TO BE AWARDED BY FACULTY WOMEN

Will Be Based On Economic Need Of
The Student

A scholarship will be awarded to a woman on the campus next week by the Faculty Woman's Club, which is composed of faculty wives, graduate assistants and the women faculty members. It is offered as a means of furthering the education of some young woman who has found it difficult to continue her education.

A feature of the gift is the fact that it will consist of cash. The Faculty Woman's Club believes that many times tuition scholarships given to students are worthless due to the fact that the student receiving them finds a shortage of incidental funds.

To Announce Winner

Often scholarship winners must discontinue school because they are unable to pay for books, clothing and other necessary expenses. It is the belief of the faculty women that a cash scholarship will do much to help some less fortunate girl to continue her education.

The recipient of the scholarship must be a woman who has overcome continuous hardships in obtaining her present status in the University. She must have a fair scholarship rating, an unquestionable character and, if possible, she must be either a junior or senior.

The winner will be announced in next week's issue of this paper. The awarding committee is composed of Miss Ruth Diamond, Mrs. V. Neve West and Mrs. Rose Stevens, and was appointed by Mrs. W. E. Sealock, president of the Faculty Woman's Club.

Freshman Day Plans Indefinite, Etchison Declares

"PLANS for Freshman Day are indefinite," Don Etchison, freshman class president, told a Gateway reporter Thursday. The date for Freshman Day has been tentatively set as Friday, May 19.

Freshmen have been assessed 35 cents each to defray the cost of refreshments for the entire student body and to pay for an orchestra for a dance in the evening. It was decided to hold Freshman Day at Carter Lake, but the cost of obtaining the dance pavilion was prohibitive. Fontenelle and Elmwood parks were also mentioned as possible sites for Gala Day.

Etchison was trying to work out a plan whereby Freshman Day and the Pan-Hellenic dance would fall on the same date. He suggested that on Freshman Day everyone get together at a park and play games, participate in contests between upper and lower classmen and enjoy refreshments provided by the freshmen. In the evening those fortunate souls with bids could attend the Pan-Hellenic dance. Tickets of admission for freshmen would be receipts for the 35-cent assessment.

TO BEGIN SALE OF TICKETS FOR GALA DAY NEXT MONDAY

Present Annual Show
At Central High
Auditorium

DATE CHANGED

DeLosa Thompson, Gala Day chairman, announced Wednesday noon that Gala Day will be held Monday, May 29, instead of Friday, May 26, as was previously planned. This change was made in order that the show might be presented in the Central High School auditorium, which will be in use Friday night.

The program calls for the usual athletic events and activities during the day, climaxed by a group of acts made up of University talent to be presented in the evening at Central High.

Sell Tickets Monday

Chairman Thompson stated, however, that unless one hundred dollars worth of tickets for the show are sold, it will be impossible for the show to be given. The sale of tickets will begin Monday with salesmen canvassing all halls. The first fifteen rows on the main floor as well as the first five rows in the balcony will be reserved seats with their price listed at 55 cents. All other seats will be sold for 40 cents.

The deadline for handing in names of acts for the evening show is noon today. All names are to be handed in to Miss Schaeffer in her office.

All entries in the golf, tennis, and track meets must be signed on the bulletin board by Wednesday noon.

Professor's Book Placed On Sale In Local Stores

A book written by Dr. T. C. Pollock, acting head of the English department, entitled "The Philadelphia Theatre in the Eighteenth Century," is on sale at Omaha book stores.

The 450 page book is the culmination of two years' research work by Pollock while working for his doctorate at Pennsylvania University. The University of Pennsylvania Press, publisher of the volume, announced the price as five dollars a copy. The American Academy of Learned Societies awarded Pollock five hundred dollars for his efforts in writing the book.

Considerable Research

In getting material for the book Pollock undertook a research into old playbills, diaries, newspapers, books, and magazines. While going through an old forgotten book entitled "Memoirs of a Revolutionary Soldier," he learned that plays were a regular part of the entertainment of Washington's army while encamped at Valley Forge in the winter 1777-78.

Authority Writes Foreword

Dr. Arthur Hobson Quinn, outstanding authority on the American drama, has written a foreword to the book. Quinn is leading editor of the text "The Literature of America," which is used in American Literature classes at Municipal University. He is also an editor of "Representative American Drama," which is used in Dr. Pollock's extension class in American Drama.

A few years ago Pollock privately published a seventy-five page thesis on the "Philadelphia Theatre in the Eighteenth Century."

NOT A DEATH BLOW

FOR the second time in as many years Municipal university has been denied accreditation by the North Central Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges.

A cheering note in the association's report is found in the fact that the reasons for refusal have been narrowed down to two—an inadequate physical plant and the lack of a sufficient number of classes for upperclassmen.

Being denied accreditation is not a death blow to the university, though it is somewhat of a disappointment. Being accredited by the Association would enhance the University's prestige and also make it somewhat easier for students transferring to other universities. Outside of this there is no great advantage in belonging to the Association.

The University's importance to the city of Omaha is not dimmed in the least by the action of this important body. Municipal university will continue to render the same efficient service it has in the past. Just as much knowledge will continue to be placed at the students' disposal as in the past.
After all, this is a university's chief reason for existence.

The administration has accomplished wonders in improving the University in the past two years.
The faculty has been strengthened, new courses of study added, and a new curriculum will be put into effect next fall. The latter reform will provide an increase in classes for juniors and seniors and will thus do away with one of the two objections to accreditment.

The second objection cited by the Association—inadequate buildings—will not be remedied for the time being, as the depression has strangled any attempt to institute a building program.

Though the building program has been delayed, Municipal university students can, at least, comfort themselves with the thought that plant expansion has only been postponed, and that within a few years the University will be housed in buildings worthy of the institution.

Council Apology

(Editor's Note—The following statement was adopted by the Student Council at a meeting Monday, May 1.)

The Student Council, through the medium of The Gateway, wishes to publicly apologize to Helen Harris, '34, Dark candidate for Junior May Queen attendant, whose name was left off the ballot.

We feel that an apology is called for and take this opportunity to affirm that the omission was accidental and not intentional.

TIME FLIES

There are only three full weeks
of classes left!

From now on a rush of outside activities will be competing with studies for a place on our programs. At the same time assignments will be longer, as instructors frantically try make to lost ground.

Careful planning and choosing will be needed to allot our time wisely. Many of us will have to start thinking about final grades.
All in all, this is the most important period of the school year.

You instructors have your own duty to perform. It is to be regretted if you are behind schedule, but you must remember that your classes are not all-important, that your students have other obligations to uphold. This happens, also, to be the most difficult time of the year for sustained concentration. Students and instructors must co-operate, each doing his part, if these last weeks are to be effectively spent.

A little flunking now and then
Will happen to the best of men.

Pickled Brain No Problem To Orr

Becomes Attached to Anatomical Specimen in Room 2 but Feels He Must Get Rid of It

A pickled human brain is no problem to Professor Hugh Robert Orr as long as it is attached to one of his students. But when the brain is pickled and put in a glass jar it becomes a brain of another color.

Apparently coming out of nowhere, this pickled monstrosity has now reposed on a shelf in Room 2 for more than eight years.
It bothered Mr. Orr and he secretly plotted to dispose of it. But what could he do with a loose brain? He didn't dare take it home; and he couldn't bury it.
Having read his Sherlock Holmes
he knew what happened to people who are caught burying brains.

Faith in Class

But after years of intimate association with the ghastly gray-matter, Mr. Orr has grown fond of the brain and regards it with much the same emotion as the grave-digger in Hamlet, who comes upon the skull of his old friend and says, "Alas, poor Yorick, I knew him well," and so on for several acts.

Mr. Orr's students, however, seldom stay long enough to become really reconciled to the anatomical specimen, although students repeating a course for the third time have been known to grow quite fond of it.

Lately some of the more esthetic damsels in the class have taken to fainting during tests and blaming it on the embalmed gray-matter. So Mr. Orr feels he must sacrifice his personal desires and is again plotting the destruction of the pickled brain.

3 Semi-Finalists Determined In Tennis Tourney

Three semi-finalists have been determined thus far in the Omaha University men's singles tennis tourney. Gil Autry, Joe Greenstone, and Cliff Pfeiffer. Joe Greenstone will play Cliff Pfeiffer and Gil Autry will meet the winner of the Bob Brown-Bennett Johnson
in order to determine the finalists.

The results of the second round are: Brown beat J. Gregory 6-2, 6-2; B. Johnson beat Hegarty 8-6,
1-6, 6-1; Autry won by default;
Bradley beat Claassen 6-4, 6-2;
Pfeiffer defeated Putnam 2-6, 6-2, 7-5; Gernandt beat Hunt by an unannounced score; Rahn defeated Hubler 6-1, 8-10, 6-0; Greenstone beat C. Williams 6-0, 6-0.

In quarter-final round Brown plays B. Johnson; Autry beat Bradley 6-2, 6-0; Pfeiffer defeated Gernandt 6-3, 4-6, 6-4; Greenstone defeated Rahn 6-3, 9-7.

The tennis team will probably be comprised of Autry, Greenstone, Pfeiffer, and the winner of Brown-Johnson match.

GERMAN TRIBUNE COMMENTS UPON MUNY U. BANQUET

Work Of Students In The Playlet Is Praised

An article by Madame Moeller-Herms appearing recently in the Omaha German Tribune expressed favorable comment on the German Club banquet held at the Omaha Musik Verein Thursday, March 27.

The article stated in part: "Miss Hildegard Stauss and her students have again recorded a perfect success with their spring banquet. Smart invitations, an entertaining program, a charming, tastefully-decorated hall, with flower-adorned tables, an orchestra playing delightful melodies, speeches of merit, joyful group singing, tasty food, and jolly young people, all these fine things the German Club achieved with its excellent teacher, its invited guests, and its members."

Praises Players

About the playlet, "Das Verwunschene Schloss," Madame Herms writes: "I must state that the comedy furnished me much amusement. The players were entirely intelligible. The king, played by Alister Finlayson, was the outstanding of the seven characters. Mr. Hyman Finkelstein, who view with the king as the snoring chancellor, and William Osheroff as Hans are also to be praised. Of the ladies, Miss Marie Baroch as the witch is especially worthy of mention. But the princess, the chambermaid, and the roles of the Misses Rouse, Pedersen and Thompson fitted well into the merry-playlet. The giant, as played by Mr. Lakin, was terribly awe-inspiring with his huge axe and his giant temperament. The main thing, however, was that all the players spoke a very intelligible German, thanks to their teacher."

Editor Comments

"If everyone enjoyed themselves as well as I, and I am sure they did, one can heartily congratulate the German Club, and especially Miss Hildegard Stauss, the soul of the whole event."

Mr. Val J. Peter, editor of the Tribune and United States marshal, also commented very favorably on the work of Miss Stauss and the German Club in a short address at the banquet.

And a depression is a period when people do without things their parents never had.

books," the report continues, "nearly all of which are of recent purchase. A reading of the shelves shows a good distribution in the different fields of work offered by the University. The library receives 70 periodicals with a satisfactory number devoted to special subjects."

A new campus would have been obtained before this and a new set of buildings would be in the process of erection if the present economic situation had not developed, the report quoted both the president of the University and the president of the Board of Regents as saying.

"The small proportion of students in the senior college is partly accounted for by the rapid increase in enrollment and even more by the fact that more than half the junior college students are enrolled in two-year curricula or are taking pre-professional courses," the report declared.

CINDER SQUAD IN TRIANGULAR MEET AT LINCOLN TODAY

Cardinals Conceded a Chance To Turn In Win

Coach Sed Hartman and fourteen trackmen will trek to Lincoln today, where they will engage Nebraska Wesleyan University and Doane College in a triangular meet at the Nebraska University coliseum.

The Omahans are conceded an excellent chance to cop the meet, although they have lost their first two dual meets of the year. At Wayne last week the Cardinals won seven first places, but lost the meet by a four point margin when they were forced to default the two-mile relay for lack of an entry.

Make Trip

Those making the trip are Clifford Anderson, Howard Sorenson, Bill Barris, Travis Dixon, Fred Dixon, Elmer Ossian, Harold Wilkes, Jack Nieman, Roy Gehrig, Charles Dickerson, Joel Thompson, Gene Hoover, and Wilber Wilhelm.

George Hartman, state shot put champion, and Dave Lewis, holder of the state pole vault record, have been in the Evangelical Covenant Hospital undergoing treatment for rheumatism and will not make the Lincoln trip. Lewis has not participated in any meets this year, while Hartman took part in both the Tarkio and Wayne meets, but has not been able to gain his last year's form.

DISHING OUT SPORT HASH

OUT in Fremont, Nebraska, high school sport stars got together and produced a musical revue called "Athletes on Parade", and made a hit of it.

At least it is rumored that stage hands found no scrambled eggs behind the footlights after the performance.

A guard on the football team came out and crooned "I Like Mountain Music", with chorus accompaniment. Two more of the boys sang a few more popular numbers, and some of the girl friends helped out with "All American Girl" and "Charlie Raccoon."

The program went on with two dramatic productions, one a love play of one act and the other a musical comedy. And all through the revue the Sunkist Beauties chorus, made up of muscular griders and tall and scrawny basketball players, tripped the light fantastic to add color to the production.

SPRING or fall, winter or summer, rain or shine, sports at the University of Omaha keep moving. We Cardinals like our games. While Jimmie Layten prolongs his hibernation in the gymnasium behind a ping pong table, golf and tennis champions are about to be crowned, track meets follow one another in rapid succession, and intramural baseball nines tangle with each other for no good reason at all. And the women shoot arrows at mattresses, get practiced up to scalp one another at tennis, and keep right at those volleyball and Nebraska ball games as though spring wasn't here at all.

JUST between you and me, the track team is ready for Doane and Wesleyan this afternoon, and we won't be surprised to see more points fall than when the phonograph with all the needles on it tipped over—and just as many records broken.

HOWARD WILCOX.

STUDENTS INDOOR BASEBALL LEAGUE PLANNED BY COACH

University To Furnish Equipment; Play At Athletic Field

ORGANIZE TEAMS

An intramural indoor baseball league will be formed if enough students are interested, Coach Sed Hartman announced Monday.

A baseball diamond has been marked off on the east end of the football field at 24th and Ames. DeLoss Thompson, '33, student athletic manager, is in charge of the equipment, which is furnished by the University.

Play Every Day

"Games will be played every afternoon at 4 o'clock, Hartman said, "but if a league is not formed students may form pick-up teams and the University will be glad to furnish the equipment for the games."

The forming of an indoor baseball league for students is a part of Coach Hartman's intramural sports program that aims to have every student in the University taking part in some form of athletics.

Members of the James team are: Kenneth Haynie, John Kozak, Lowell Fouts, James McCreary, Melvin Viner, Lloyd Patterson, Lowell Curtis, Gene Hoover, Don Minikus, John Riordan, Bill Nelson and Frank Hummel.
